

"Twas The Night Before Concert" as a few members of the Bucks County Choir group tune up with Director Wendy Hellyer and accompanist Robert Gajdos (at piano).

Professional Singer and President of Bucks County Performing Arts Institute, Wendy Hellyer, and the Victorian Carollers will be appearing at Shady Brook Farm's "Santa's Village" from 7-9pm on December 7, 14, and 21.

Holiday music singing supports scholarships

The Bucks County Choir is scheduled to perform holiday music at Shady Brook Farm on Nov. 29th, Nov. 30th, Dec. 8th and Dec. 20th. The Friday and Saturday Concerts are set for 8:00 pm and the Sunday concert will be at 7:00 pm.

Each of performances will benefit the Music Scholarship Fund of the Bucks County Performing Arts Institute (BCPA) — a non-profit corp. whose mission is to support the performing arts in the Bucks County area. The BCPA has subsidized the development of the Bucks County Choir under the direction of Wendy Hellyer, director of the Hellyer Performing Arts Center in Bensalem.

"The choir members are thrilled that each performance will help the scholarship fund", says Hellyer. "This is more than WIN/WIN — its WIN/WIN/WIN/WIN ! The visitors at Shady Brook Farm get a great music treat while enjoying Santa and the Christmas drafters and light show, Shady Brook Farm continues to be a great supporter of the community by contributing to the scholarship fund, the choir gets to have the fun of performing and next year a couple of deserving kids will get to continue music lessons!"

In addition to the choir performances, local music students from the Hellyer Performing Arts Center will be performing on Dec. 11th, 16th, 15th and 22nd prior to a special Christmas Puppet Show. On

Dec. 7th, 14th, & 21st, Wendy Hellyer and the Victorian Carollers will be singing traditional Christmas Carols costumed 'a la Dickens' from 7:00—9:00 pm.

For information about the entertainment schedule call the Hellyer Performing Arts Center at 215- 757-7775. For other Shady Brook Farm festivities call (215) 968-1670.